JENKINS

There is lots of flu at present. Miss M. A. James was the guest of Mrs. W. H. Daugherty and family, Sunday.

We were very sorry to learn of the death of Rev. G. W. Qualls.

The Clio, Mt. Home, Jenkins and Prairie Grove schools are dismissed because of the flu.

Miss Mary Daugherty was the guest of the Misses Swearingen, Wednesday night of last week.

Mrs. John Bailie is very ill. Claud Huse left Monday for Oklahoma.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Potter was burned Tuesday, February 17. How it caught has not been learned.

Mrs. Homer Thomas and children are the latest victims of the flu.

The home of Isaac Swafford was burned last week. Mrs. Swafford was away at one of the neighbors when the fire occurred. There was no one at home but the two sons, Onas and Frank. Nothing was saved except a few quilts some flour and meat. Another house gone up in flames and no insurance. It pays to insure.

Albert Suttles the teacher of Jenkins school is ill with the flu. His brother Porter Suttles is teaching for him this week.

Mrs. George Evans and Mary Daugherty went to Cato Thursday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. James Clevenger who are quite ill with the flu.

There will not be prayer meeting at Cato until the flu subsides.

Mr. and Mrs. Jodia Evans visited Mrs. Evans parents Mr. and Mrs. Osborn the latter part of the week.

Mrs. W. H. Daugherty spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Lottie Thomas.

Clyde Daugherty has been real sick with the flu but is some better now.

Dr. Perriman and Dr. Doty have been kept busy the past two weeks caring for the flu victims. There has been no deaths yet.

Mrs. Alsie Wilson is visiting relatives at Clio this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hudson were shopping in Jenkins, Thursday.

Miss Flossie Eden visited her sister Mrs. Tom Edmond the latter part of the week.

Jim Eden is able to go to Cato once more.

Claud Huse visited Delmar Allen Sunday.

Emery Eden and Clarence Hudson visited Miron Daugherty, Sunday.
